The New Iranian Cinema: Politics, Representation and Identity by Tapper, Richard.

Publication: London, New York I.B. Tauris, 2002.

As Devictor describes this process below: When the Revolution broke out in 1979, observers and professionals of the film industry were worried about the future of cinema in Iran. She shows how the regime actually operated an ideological cinema, which was not peculiar to Iran: in the USSR, the US (under the Hays Code) and France too, cinema has been part of political debate.
